Increasing women's representation in elected office

Happy International Women's Day on March 8! For me, International Women's Day is a day to celebrate the opportunities I have available to me - I can attend university, I can vote, I can buy a house, and I can do all these things wearing pants (if I want to) - and to celebrate the women that helped make these things possible.

But it's also a day to ask questions. Questions such as: Why do women, who make up nearly half of the population of the NWT, make up only 18% of our territorial Legislative Assembly?...Read more

We're the family, youth and adult literacy and essential skills centre for excellence.

We support literacy and essential skills in all the official languages of the Northwest Territories.

We're also plain language specialists.
